*The school may photograph children during class time or special days to commemorate and to promote various educational or cultural events taking place.

*If you do not wish to be included on the class list or to have your child photographed, please inform us in writing.

The school reserves the right to request a child withdraw under (and not limited to) the following circumstances: continual late payment, child not adjusting to the environment, or family not adjusting to the school philosophy. Before being asked to withdraw, meetings and observations will be held with the parents to determine the most appropriate course of action.

One full month's written notice of withdrawal must be given before the month end prior to any child withdrawing from the school. If such notice is not given the following months tuition will be due.

Thank you for your interest in Fraser Heights Montessori!
